

Evolution and Enlightenment in "AL-Moqtatuf" Scientific Journal

Dr. Tawfik Shomer***

Abstract

The main point in this paper is to highlight the way the Arab thinkers during the Arab enlightenment period had dealt with the idea of evolution. In addition, The paper draws attention to the rich scientific dialogue that took place through the articles of "Al-Moqtatuf" scientific journal, a very important journal that made its aim to develop the scientific and cultural discourse in the Arab world. The Journal made it its role to adopt and to present the important developments in science in a way that is culturally sensitive and in a way that can be understood and accepted by the Arab society.
