

Total mark 100	Divided on to two text 50 each one is Arabic to English; the 2 nd is English to Arabic both texts are going to be literary texts that have not been taught during the semester.
Careful with:
Task completion: translating one text only!	If one of the texts only, the result will be failing the exam immediately.
Task completion: both texts are translated	if both texts are translated, both texts will be looked into, if the text was not fully translated marks will be deducted for each missing sentence from the 50 marks allotted to the text itself. This includes leaving a blank space in a sentence or translating a part of the sentence.
Grammar:	Two identical grammar mistakes will be tolerated once, except if they are from the (deadly mistakes) listed below and starting from the third mistake each one will cause the deduction of 2 marks per mistake for the marks allotted to the text.
Deadly mistakes:	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1- Subject-verb agreement</li> <li>2- Singular plural nouns</li> <li>3- Definite/indefinite articles</li> <li>4- Wrong use of pronouns</li> </ol> Every deadly mistake will result in the deduction of 5 marks from the allotted marks for the text.
Vocabulary:	Choosing the right word but choosing the wrong part of speech will be considered as a mistake and will result in the deduction of 2 marks for each mistake from the marks allotted to the text. Choosing a synonym will be considered. If a word was not translated word-for-word but rather explained in a way that fits the given context it will be considered.
Spelling:	Choosing the right word but spelling it wrong will result in the deduction of 2 marks from the marks allotted to the text.